Conquistador Cultural Arts Series

DCCC's fifth season of cultural events brings you the best in music, theater and art in an exciting series.

Attention DCCC Students!

Students enrolled in a minimum of 6 credit hours who have an I.D. validated for the Fall 96 semester will be admitted FREE of charge.

DCCC Employees and their immediate families will be admitted FREE of charge with their currently validated I.D.

Eleanor: a celebration Monday, September 16, 1996 7:30 p.m. DCCC Theatre

A one person two-act play starring veteran Broadway and Hollywood movie and television actress, Toni Gillman. You'll laugh at Eleanor Roosevelt's put down humor, weep at her betrayals and cheer her courage. These performances have drawn excited raves from critics and audience ovations across the country.

The Dutton Family Friday, November 22, 1996 7:30 p.m. DCCC Theatre

Whether recording their latest country album in Nashville, playing a concerto with a symphony orchestra, or fiddling and clogging up a storm on international television, The Duttons' love of the total musical experience shines through. This real family (mom, dad & six children) is incredibly talented. They portray a "warm" feeling about families which is so important in these times.

The Songs of George & Ira Gershwin Saturday, April 5, 1997 7:30 p.m. DCCC Theatre

During Marhsa Hunter and Brian Kent's performance you will hear the songs created by George and Ira Gershwin during the 1920's and '30s, the Golden Age of the American popular song. These songs have endured throughout the 20th century and will, undoubtedly, be sung and enjoyed well into the 21st.
